

TOPIC	Tried Activity			Ease of Use			Student's Reactions			Activity Adapted		Recommended			Students with Special Needs
	DATE TRIED	HOW MANY TIMES?	DID NOT TRY	EASY	MEDIUM	HARD	HIGH INTEREST	AVERAGE INTEREST	LOW INTEREST	YES	NO	KEEP ACTIVITY	MODIFY ACTIVITY	DROP ACTIVITY	HOW MANY?	WORKED WELL	NEEDS TO BE IMPROVED
The Very Hungry Caterpillar
Writing center – trace number caterpillars
Writing center – create name caterpillars
Writing center – write names in fruit scented salt or cornmeal boxes
Writing center – draw a write about favorite fruit
Writing center – make and practice sequencing the butterfly life cycle at the writing center
Writing center – pattern butterfly and flower prints
Writing center – write a story about the “If I were a Butterfly” poem
Writing center – draw and watercolor paint on coffee filters to make flowers
Dramatic play – shop for fruits at “The Hungry Caterpillar Farm”
Game center – play Garden Lotto
Discovery center – use popsicle stick caterpillars to measure our bodies
Discovery center – count and graph fruits
Discovery center – sort caterpillars and butterflies from other insects
Cooking center – bake cinnamon caterpillars
Cooking center – make banana popsicles
Cooking center – spin a bread cocoon around a beef hotdog
Cooking center – decorate a Dip and Sip Nectar Flower for snack																	